67 Planctus seu Lamentum Origenis (latine)

1. Introduction.

The pseudo-Gelasian decree (CPL 1676) mentioned a work called Paenitentia Origenis and considered it as spurious. Apparently, this is the same text (but see the doubts in CPG 1522 and CPL 1153b) that HYEROTHEUS 1512 and MERLIN 1512 published as Planctus (also called Lamentum, Threni), presenting it as Jerome's translation of a work by Origen, though already ERASMUS / RHENANUS 1536 rightly reported it as spurious. VEGA 1971 argued that it was composed as a scholarly exercise in the French area; Dekkers (CPL 1153b) noticed that all the manuscripts predate the Carolinian period.

Textual tradition: CPG 1522; CPL 1153b.
